RESULTS OF FIRST THREE DAYS OF MEETING FORESHADOW SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

Present Week Will See Meeting Settled Into Its Stride-Track Is Improving and Fields Will Soon Be Larger and Better as a Consequence.

El Paso, Tex., November 20.—Three days of the Jarcez unceting have passed into history and there is every indication that the expectations of the management that this will be the most successful meeting in the history of the Jockey Chub Juarez will be realized. The inceting has started off far more iromishingly than any of its predecessors and will be well settled into its stride during the coming week. Before the end of the week, the late comers who remained in the east for the closing days of the Jamestown Jockey Chub's meeting will have arrived and there will then be a cessation of arrivals until after the holidays, when it is expected that there will be another considerable movement of racing folk this way. The track is still a trifectory of the summary of Weish at 8. Each was backed by a small cottere of admirers.

The one mile and a sixteenth race was wou by Melton Street, an odds-on choice. He was admirably ridden by Loftns, who waited patiently with his mount until the lower turn was reached, then went after tonsole, which had a lead of fully six lengths. Melton Street was inclined to loaf in the homestretch, but when Loftns drew his whip he dashed forward like a flash, to win easily.

Swede Sam displayed a high turn of speed and make a runnyar aree of it in the third. Brevite, the favorite, met with some mishaps during the running and, when he recovered, he made up ground gamely, but it was too late.

Skeoting Spray went to the front at the start of the fifth and was challenged in the stretch by Zhoi. In the hard drive that followed, fockey Forsythe outrode Loftns in the last aixteenth.

There will be no racting at the Justex track on Monday. A big crowd is expected to see tomorrow's card decided.

The stakes of the Jockey Club Jnarez yet to come, which closed on November 7, filled better than ever before. For Instance, in the El Paso Stakes, one mile, there is a total of seventy-two entries, and for the Rio Grande Stakes, six furlongs, sixty-the borses have been named. In the Chinaina Stakes, six furlongs, stay-the borses have been named. In the Chinaina Stakes, six furlongs, there came fifty-one entries; the Dos Republicas Haudicap, seven furlongs, forty-duc entries; the Chapultepec Handicap, six furlongs, forty-five entries; the Chapultepec Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, forty-two entries, and the Navidad Handicap, one mile, thirty-eight entries.

F. D. Welr has six promising yearilums at the Juarez track, one being a gelding and the others filles. They are:
Hay filly, by Tie Commoner—Niaxus.
Hake filly, by Ogden—Masquerade.
Chestmut filly, by Uncle—Hazing.
Bay filly, by Uncle—Hazing.
Bay gelding, by Uncle—Hazing.
Bay gelding, by Uncle—Hazing.
Bay gelding, by Uncle—Hazing.
The youngsters in this collection by Uncle are the first of the get of this son of Star Shoot, and were raised at Hamburg Place by J. E. Madden, who has always regarded Uncle as among the best racers of recent years. It was the fate of this great horse to stack up as a kludergarten performer against the sensational Colin. As far as Mr. Welr has gone with these yearlings, they give every promise of ultimately racing well. Aside from the yearlings, Mr. Welr has here the older horses Auy Port, Sister Forence, Crossover, Sprightly Miss and King Staiwart. This is Mr. Welr's first visit to the Juarez track and he is much impressed with the great plant and the fine climate here. He says that he expects to speud every winter hereafter at the Mexican course.

R. F. Carman has some great two-year-old prospects among the ulne yearings he has quartered at the Juarez track. A full list of them follows: Chestunt filly, by Waterboy-Lushrose. Bay colt, by Woolsthorpe-One Moment, Bay colt, by Utimus-Danelug Water. Bay filly, by Waterboy-Duebess of Towers. Thestunt filly, by Alvescot-Daruma. Bay colt, by Marta Santa-Strathlou. Brown colt, by Disguise-Ophirdale. Chestunt colt, by Voter-Adelbert Beile.

Chestnut colt, by Voter—Adelbert Belle.

Mr. Carman has naued none of his youngsters yet, but is thinking of bestowing Mexican names upon them, as he figures in this way to avoid duplicates when he sends the list to the Jockey Club for registration. This New Yorker is delighted with Juarez and saya he never saw a finer whitering place for horses. The one filly he lost here was a mealer of his stable that had been more or less alling for over a year and a half and as he was rarely able to be much of a loss. The older tracks of his stable, including Meridian. Starbottle, Semprolus, Compton. Beunie Kelse, Cohort, Campion and The Turk, coul-

EASTERN RACING CLOSES

JAMESTOWN JOCKEY CLUB'S MOST SUCCESS-FUL MEETING COMES TO AN END.

George W. Langdon Wins Final Stake with the Two-Year-Old, His Majesty-Lahore's Rider Futilly Makes Claim of Foul.

Norfolk, Va., November 30.—The 1912 season of racing in the east came to a close with the running of the seveu-race program provided by the Jamestown Jockey Club here this afternoon. The races were witnessed by the largest crowd of the meeting, well-balanced fields went to the post for a majority of the races and the sport was keen. The finishes in two of the races were exceedingly close, these being the second and sixth, won by Western Belle and Servicence.

The Exchange Haudicap, a dash of one mile and a sixteenth for all agos, was the feature race, and it furnished G. W. Langdon an opportunity for showing just how good a colt he had in His Majesty. The latter, with C. Turner in the saddle, made practically all of the pace and beat the favorite, Lahore, by four lengths. Lahore was ridden by Ambrose today and was evidently well meant, as there was pienty of support for him despite his poor showing in a preceding effort. He ran well up with the pacemaker from the start and moved up with a rush on the luside in rounding the far turn. When he got to His Majesty, Ambrose was unable to get through and repeatedly struck at Turner with his whip. He was in rather close quarters and Labore suddenly dropped back. After the race Ambrose cialmed that he had been interfered with by the winner. The atewards evidently were of the opinion that there was no interference, as the placing was allowed to stand just as the borses finished. In this they were indorsed by a majority of those who watched the race closely. At all events, His Majesty was undoubtedly best, for he won in Hittle more than a canter. Since passing into Mr. Langdon's hands, this coit has improved wonderfully and it looks as If he may develop into a real high class three-year-old. This was the second stake that the Langdon atable wook here. Briar Path baving leater an all-aged band in the Merchants' Seiling Stakes at slx furlongs last week.

B. D. Schlupp, the German buyer who came here from Lexington to secure owner thorongboreds for shipment abroad, secured s week.

The Venezuelan buyers, E. Sucre & Co., also secured several more horses for shipment to South America. Those purchased this afternoon were viento, Latent and Falconet. These three were sold at the auction sale held in the paddock previous to the races by P. M. Civill. Viento went for $200, Latent for $625 and Falconet for $160. Others sold included Lone Star, to G. W. Innes for $130; Roray, J. T. Tempic, $100; La Sainrella, R. E. Watklus, $200; Aggression, R. Sinclair, $70; Inclement, J. Witt, $100, and Galinda, W. C. Weant, $200.

$200.

Herman Molsel purchased Working Lad at private sale for $000. He will ship the horse to Gravesend and rest him during the winter. Jack McDonald purchased Joe Deibold from George W. Innes for $3.500, and insurance Man from J. Chelland. Mr. McDonald had closed a deal for the colt before the race with Mr. Holland's agent.

mcDonaid had closed a deal for the colt before the race with Mr. Holland's agont.

W. F. Cisco bid Yorkville up $400 over his entered price of $800 and secured him. He afterwards sold the colt to Charles Richings.

W. V. Convan has donated the stallion St. Damlus to the Canadian Breeding Burean and the horse will be shipped to Toronto in William Walker's car on Monday.

Frank Taylor boosted Servicence after he won the sixth race and secured him on his bid of $500. This was an advance of $200 over his entered price.

A hig party left here tonight for Juares. Among them were Claude Kyle, Frank Kaverne, George Marks, F. J. Kittleman, Fiorens Israel, J. E. Hartson, C. Meek, C. Harris, H. Lowry, F. J. Kraft, E. L. Jones, C. Norris, J. W. Reynolds, J. J. Johnston, James Casey, T. J. Power, M. J. McGrath, E. L. Stone, William Beverley, Henry Graffin, and Jockeys Buxton, Kirschbamm, Carter and Frach.

The following went to New Orleans: T. J. Shaw, Harry Shaw, Colonel James, and Bruno Mitchell.

"I am getting well and certainly shall take my seat in Cougress," said Timothy D. Sullivan to a friend who visited blm a day or two ago at the Westchester County Sanliarium, where he is re-cuperating from a prolouged illness.

American owners continue their successes on the French turf. At St. Ouen, Friday, they scored in three of the six races, Mr. Fischoff, with Lokhattia, won a selling race at even money. Frank Jay Gould, with a rank outsider, Contl LaBelle, 24 to 1, took the principal event in the burdles, a race for $2,000. Charles Kohler captured an $800 handleap with Novelty at even money.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., November 30.—Phil T. Chinn has made all arrangements to leave here next Wednesday for France with the seven mares he bought from James R. Keene for W. K. Vanderbilt. They will go aboard the Minnewaska at New York next Saturday.

Golconda is a bnsy selling plater that is still able to win races. In six seasons on the track, Golconda has started in 197 races and has twenty-three firsts and $10.783 to show for his efforts. He is a borse that has raced in various interests and he is now the property of Davis & Karst, who have been campaigning him on the millor tracks of late. His racing record is as follows:

YEARLINGS IN THE MACKENZIE STRING.

El Paso, Tex.. November 30.—R. J. Mackenzie, the Canadian millionaire for whom Jack Adklus is training successfully, has a promising lot of year-lings in training at Juarez for the two-year-old races to be run in 1913. Several of them recently arrived from California, where they were bred, and the list is made up as follows:

Brown colt, by Contestor—Lucasta.

Chestunt filly by The Commoner—Lee Water.

Chestnut filly, by The Commoner—lee Water, Brown filly, by Joe Carey—Saindora, Brown colt, by Joe Carey—Prindental Girl, Bay filly, by Joe Carey—Glenco Maid, Bay colt, by Joe Carey—Sister Modred.

GOOD START AT JUAREZ.

not possibly look better and unless all signs fall Mr. Carman will have a most prosperous season here.

More Goldulate has a promising yearling colt in his stable by Stalwart. This youngster before leaving Latonia worked a quarter in 223% and in that trial outrau au older horse that worked with him. He shipped well and acts in his work more like a two-year-old that has hever raced the harrier. He will be nominated for all the two-year-old events soon to be announced by Secretary icid Jasper.

George Miller, who is here in charge of the Burband which horses, including Lehigh, Gasket, Dynamo and Wheeler, was once one of the most famous riders in America. He rode in most of his noted races the great Tammauuy and the famous Moreilo was another sensational horse he often rode. He was on the latter when that son of Eolus won the famous Whieeler Handicap, Washington Park. Chicago, and made a track record of 2.05 for a mile and a quarter. When Miller quit riding he drifted to California and has since been a trainer of horses. Nell Enright, nntil recently connected with the racing stable of W. O. Jopiln, is here for the winter. While he has no stable in charge at present he has a backer who is likely to bny any good horse which turns up for saie. The only horse he had left in Kentucky was Forehead and that one he fired and inrued out nntil next spring. Mr. Enright seems to think that T. Koerner may decide not to attempt to chie again. Koerner has a his home in Louisville, but has never thoroughly recovered from the effects of his fall from Effendi at Douglas Park last September. His physician says he will soon be entirely well, but as he has gained in weight he has about decided to quit the saddle. His brother, C. Koerner, also once a Jockey, Is now a prosperous business man in Louisville and it is likely that Jopilu's famons rider will join his brother in a business venture. Koerner has smificient capital to live in iuxry without adding another dollar to his wealth.

George Mayberry, who is engaged now in the training of F. J. Grefer's stable since Harry Herdel famons rIder will join his brother in a business venture. Koerner has sufficient capital to live in iuxury without adding another dollar to his wealth.

George Mayberry, who is engaged now in the training of F. J. Grefer's stable since Harry Herdel and Mr. Grefer parted company, was once employed in Sam IIIIdreth's stable as foreman. It was on Mayberry's advice that Mr. Grefer decided not to race his two good fillies Florai Park and I Trojan Belle this winter, and for fear that he would ten temped to train them too early next spring and run them a time or two at Juarez, he has them quartered in El Paso where they can exercise in a lot during the daytime. Both showed a bit of had disposition on the track in late races and by keeping them away from where they would come in contact with other horses. Mayberry thinks he can being them back to be as good track actors as there are in traluing. Both Mayberry and Grefer think Floral Park will win the Kentucky Oaks next spring.

Rudolfo, which won the Latoula Cup for Capt. II. Emmons, was not sold to C. F. Buschemeyer, the owner of Hawthorn, as was reported in some circles. It is understood that Mr. Buschemeyer offered $4,000 for the coll but Captain Emmons declined the tender and priced the colt at $5,000, but gained Mr. Ruschemeyer's consent to let W. S. Trevey take Rudolfo to Louisville and winter him there with Hawthorn and the other horses he has in charge. He will also let Mr. Trevey train the Latonia Cup winner next season and especially point him for the four-mile Endurance Stakes at Churchill Downs next fail. Captain Emmons depocially point him for the four-mile Endurance Stakes at Churchill Downs next fail. Captain Emmons decreased by Dr. Ramon Macias and C. W. Clark, has returned from a wedding trip to California, having taken unto himself a wife at the close of the Latonia meeting. Trainer Lowe has in his stable General Marchinont, Maizle Girl, Jim Bascy, Florence Roberts, Franche, El Palomar, The Cinier, Sigurd. Magda B., Don Ramon and a yearling named Theo

APPROACHING THE $50,000 MARK.

A horse that may yet work his way into that exclusive class composed of winners of $50,000 and over is J. II. Mead's Chapultepec, the seven-vear-old son of Geroistein and Graclosity. This fast horse won the lion's share of the $46,237 that now stands to his credit as a two-year-old and a three-year-old, when conditions were more favorable for making a good showing in money won than in succeeding years. But for an erratic disposition that he developed in the early part of his racing career. Chapultepec doubtless would have had an even greater sum to his credit than he has. It is stated that in the last two or three seasons Chapultepec has quieted down considerably and that he is by no means the ball actor at the post that he once was. In his younger days Chapultepec was wont to give the starter and his assistants no end of trouble in affecting a start and it was a tiresome task to line him up at the barrier. During 1911 and 1912 Chapultepec won more money than during the previous two years and it is to be hoped that he may be able during the coming year to win the $3,763 necessary to enrole him in the $50,000 class.

Chapultepec raced as a two-year-old in the colors of Fred Burlew. He ran second to Firestone in the first part of the Double Event and scored his first victory in the Spring Stakes at Coney Island, July 4, the celebrated King James running third. Them he ran second to Stamina in the second half of the Double Event, again beating King James. A victory in the Spring Stakes at Coney Island, July 4, the celebrated King James running third. Then he ran second to Stamina in the second half of the Double Event, again beating King James. A victory in the Spring Stakes at Brighton Beach followed. Then he ran second to the incomparable Colin in the Brighton land Bar None. After a series of unplaced efforts he scored in an allowance race at New Oreans, at here-year-old he won his initial start in the New Year's Handicap at New Orleans. His next start was in the Merchants' Handlean also at New leans on the occasion of his final start as a two-vear-old.

As a three-year-old he won his initial start in the New Year's Haudicap at New Orleans. His next start was in the Merchants' Handicap, also at New Orleans, and in which he scored another easy victory. Then he beat the speedy Jack Atkin ten lengths in the King Cotton Stakes. By this time the New Orleans racegoers began to regard him as luvinchle and he ruled an odds-on choice for the Crescent City Derby, only to meet defeat by Meelick, which great three-year-old S. C. Hildreth had shipped from California to fill his Derby engagements at New Orleans after he had taken the three-year-old shonors in the Golden State. Angelus, with which he was coupled in the betting as the Burlew & O'Neill entry, beat Chapultepec in the City Park Derby, which followed shortly and in which Meelick ran third. That ended Chapultepec's racing at New Orleans.

was coupled in the clity Park Derby, which followed shortly and in which Meellck ran third. That ended Chapuitepec's racing at New Orleans.

He next appears as a contestant in the Carter Handleap at Aqueduci, in which he ran third to Jack Atkin and Red River. Then he was returned whuser of the Sterling Stakes, at the same track. After running unplaced in the Excelsor Handleap and the Withers Stakes, he won the Cariton Stakes at Gravesend and ran third to Fair Play and King James in the Brooklyn Derby. Then an unplaced start in the Tidal Stakes, won by Colin, marked his final appearance in the colors of Burlew & O'Neill, who shortly afterwards sold their increes and went to France. When he next raced it was at Santa Anita Park in sontiern California late in the year. He carried the colors of H. R. Brandt and scored in a sprinting race over his old-time antagonist. Meelick. He raced Indifferently during 1909 and passed to the possession of Harry L. Shaw, from whom his present owner, J. H. Mead, acquired him. Chapuitepec, as a young horse, possessed dazzling speed, some of which he still retains. His racing has for the most part been confined to sprinting; on December 28, 1908, as a three-year-old, he reduced the American record for six furiongs to 1:11, which performance has since been equaled, but not surpassed. Prince Ahmed and Priscillian new share with Chapuitepec, b. h. (1905), by Gerolstein—Graciosity.
